ABOUT GUNSLINGER

Come and see us at Gunslinger...we have the coolest cowboy boots, hats, clothing, jewelry,accessories, ranch furnishings, art, photography, and great Texas music...and in true Southern hospitality..."there's always a cold one in the fridge" just waitin' for you!

How did we find Bandera and name our store? Our mutual love of back roads adventures to fun places in Texas took us to a little town that boasts a big title, "Bandera: Cowboy Capital of the World." We took the scenic route and traveled down Hwy 16 which winds alongside the clear Medina River and is bordered by majestic Cypress trees.

When we pulled into Bandera, horses... both real and steel...were lined up in front of saloons. We casually held hands and walked along Main Street enjoying what we thought was going to be a sleepy, quiet town...but we were suddenly startled by gunshots. It turned out to be a colorful bunch of "gunslingers" in front of the OST Restaurant who we found out later are called "The Cowboys on Main."

ABOUT BANDERA

Bandera's population is 957 and loaded with characters. It's somewhat secluded and about a 35 mile drive out of San Antonio into the hill country. We have five annual parades, many festivals (check our Events calendar), three rodeos, a lot of quaint B & B's and RV parks to choose from. Call Gunslinger for recommendations. Five live music venues are open daily! Bandera is located on The Medina River so toobin ' or swinging from a rope is always fun in the summertime. Steak night is every Wednesday...stop by the Super S grocery store, grab a steak, and joint the rest of the town around the grills at 11th Street Cowboy Bar. Listen to live music, have a cold one, and enjoy the local color.

GUNSLINGER | Returns and Exchange Policy | Back

Bandera is a darlin' little town...easy to get around...and most of our customers are either locals who can come on back within three days, or tourists who are just passin' through. Therefore, we like for you to make your returns or exchanges with original receipt within three days for store credit only. There's always a cold one in the fridge...so even your exchange can be fun.

If you're ordering online, here's the lowdown: If you are not satisfied with an item, you have ten days from receipt to return it to us. You simply pay the shipping back to Gunslinger and you can 1) exchange your item based upon availability, 2) receive a store credit, or 3) get a full refund, after the item has been inspected to make sure it is unworn, unused, and in its original condition with price tag in place. Cowboy boots cannot have scratches on the bottom...so please try them on with a rug underfoot! Original shipping expense will not be reimbursed. Furniture requires a 15% restocking fee. If you were lucky enough to get a gift purchased from Gunslinger but you are not happy with it, you may exchange it for another item or store credit plus shipping. We are sorry, but custom products cannot be returned.

If you need to return an item, please follow these instructions: Email Melissa with your item description and reason for return at
